Their Ancestors and Descendants,

Compiled by

William Stone Lewis,

Oneida N.Y. Nov.1st,1909.

William Stone, the emigrant ancestor, with his wife Hannah, his brother John and some twenty three other men With their families, styling themselves " The Guilford Company " after their native town, sailed from London, Eng. about May 20th. 1639, under the leadership of Rev. Henry Whitfield for the purpose of founding a colony in " The New World ". Their ship was of 350 tons burden and in addition to the colonists came several mechanics under contract to erect houses for the colonists, many of whom when this was done returned to their homes in England.

Among the colonists was William Leete, who afterwards became and was for many years and up to the time of his death in 1683, Governor of the Connecticut Colony.

While at sea and on June 1st. 1639 the colonists entered into the following agreement which they termed:-

" The PLANTATION COVENANT

We, whose names are hereunder written, intending by God's gracious permission to plant ourselves in New England, and if it may be, in the southerly part, about Quinnipiack, we do faithfully promise each to each, for ourselves and families, and those that belong to us, that we will the Lord assisting us, sit down and join ourselves together in one entire plantation, and to be helpful each to the other in every common work, according to every mans ability and as need shall require, and we promise not to desert or leave each other or the plantation but with the consent of the rest or the greater part of the Company who have entered this engagement.

As for our gathering together in a church way, and the choice of officers and members to be joined together in that way, we do refer ourselves until such time as it shall please God to settle us in our plantation.

In witness whereof we subscribe our hands, the first day of June 1639

Between the 10th. and 15th. of July 1639 the ship bearing the little colony sailed into the harbor of Quinnipiack or as it was later called New Haven, their vessel being the first to enter the harbor, after landing they at once set about finding a suitable site for the settlement and chose Kenemetuck on the sound some twenty miles to the east of New Haven, and to which they gave the name of Guilford from Guilford England a borough town of Surry where many of them formerly lived. The deed of the township was obtained from Uncas, the Mohigan sachem who owned the land by conquest of the Pequods, the price paid for the township was four coats, two kettles, four fathoms of wampum, four hatchets and three hoes.

The settlement was laid out with a park of some twelve acres in the center, surrounding this lots were assigned to each family for homes, and farming lands at convenient distances from the settlement, and before winter they were all comfortably housed.

William Leete Stone in his book " The Family of John Stone " says that William and John Stone were sons of Rev. Samuel Stone a non-conformist divine of Hertford, England, he also says that John Stone was born about 1618 which is probably correct, Thos. S. Smith of Hartford, Conn. the historian of the Stone Family Association, Conn, says that William and John Stone the emigrant brothers were probably sons of Rev. Samuel Stone, but that it is not proven. "Trumbull's History of Hartford Co. Conn. 1886 page 362 says, "Rev. Samuel Stone, son of John Stone a freeholder of that place was born in Hartford Co. Hertfordshire (usually at that time called Hartford) Eng. and baptised July 30th. 1602 in the church of All Saint's, entered at Emanuel College Cambridge 1620 A. B. 1623 A. M. 1627: Recent discoveries show that a Samuel Stone, probably this one, was curate at Stetsed Co. Essex near Chelmsford, from June 13, 1627 to Sept. 30, 1630, he came to New England with Cotton, Hooker and other men of note, in the " Griffin " arriving at Boston Sept. 4, 1633: chosen teacher of the church at Cambridge Oct. 11, 1633. removed to Hartford 1636 where he was an original proprietor, and in 1639 his home lot was on the north branch of the Little River. He served as Chaplain to the troops under Capt. Mason in the Pequot war 1637, his wife died 1640 before Nov. 2nd., and he married second before July 1641 Elizabeth Allen of Boston, John son of first wife Graduated at Hartford College 1653".

From Johnsons Cyclopedia we extract the following: "Stone, Samuel, born at Hartford, England about 1602: studied at Emanuel College, Cambridge, 1620-1627: took orders in the Church of England: attached himself to the Puritan section of that Church:

for which reason he underwent many annoyances from the authorities: embarked for New England on the " Griffin " with 200 emigrants, headed by Hooker, Cotton and Hayne 1633: became colleague pastor with Hooker at Newtown (now Cambridge) 1633, and removed with the Church to the banks of the Connecticut River 1636, at which time the present city of Hartford was founded and named in honor of Stone's native place. After the death of Hooker in 1647, he succeeded to the pastorate: was noted for his wit and humor and distinguished as a conversalist, and was engaged in important theological discussions, died at Hartford July 20th. 1663, leaving many MSS. on theology".

From the above we infer that the Rev. Samuel Stone was born about the year 1600 and John Stone about 1610, as his brother William was old enough to be married before coming to Guilford in 1639 he was probably born before 1618, we can not believe that John and William were sons of the Rev. Samuel, much as we would like to claim that worthy as an ancestor. It is more probable that they were brothers.

We shall not in this work attempt to trace the numerous descendents of William Stone (1) but will confine ourselves to the ancestors and descendents of the three brothers Anson, Joseph and Abner Stone who came from Connecticut to Oneida Co. N. Y. near the close of the 18th. Century.

The following year he sold his interest in this farm to his partner Grant, and bought a portion of the farm adjoining on the west, a second portion was bought in 1804.

some ten acres of the first purchase had been cleared the remainder was forest, which he cleared himself and later erected the house which is still standing in an excellent state of preservation. This house was built by his brother Abner Stone 8 who was a carpenter as well as farmer.

Joseph Stone accumulated what was in those early days considered a handsome property. He was one of the organizers and up to the date of his death a director of what is now the National Bank of Vernon. During the war of 1812-13 he was a Captain in the State Militia but saw no active service. On his death the homestead went to his son Joseph Langdon Stone, (18) and on his death to his widow, Frances, who retained ownership until 1907, when she sold to the present owner, Daniel Ritsinger, so that the farm was in the family for one hundred and nine years continuously.
